shift.

Definition: A change or transfer from one place, position, direction, or person to another.

When the wind changes direction, the best sailors shift in response, perhaps charting a new course, to achieve desired results.

focus.

Definition: A central point, as of attraction, attention, or activity.

The best wine comes from grape vines that are radically pruned. Pruning allows the plant to concentrate effort on what's most important – growing fruit.

evolve.

Definition: To come forth gradually into being; develop; undergo; to reach to a different adaptive state or condition.

The first computer weighed 30 tons and took up 680 square feet. A computer now fits in your pant's pocket.
